PRAYER & PRAISE

25th February, 2016

- H PEOPLE: Pray with R & B for more cross-cultural workers to serve among the H people who don't get the opportunity to hear about Jesus. Praise God for short-term workers R & K who have arrived to teach in the university. Pray for them as they get used to the culture of the university and create an open, welcoming home for students and others to feel comfortable to visit and share life together. Pray that key relationships will continue to grow and that the team will be able to share their faith.
- B PEOPLE: Phil is planning on taking some further study. Pray that he will find a course that will help him to be more effective in his work in South Asia. Pray that through his contact with churches and individuals he will grow his support team of prayer and financial partners.
- KHMER: Remember candidates Rob and Deb, Paul and Lydia, and Tristan and Megan as they share their journey with churches and look to build long-term relationships that will support them as they serve in Cambodia. Pray that their families and friends will catch God's vision and know His wisdom as they make many changes.
- YAWO: Remember Graham and Pam as they begin to handover their work to the team in Malawi. Pray that they would be able to finish their service well and have time to say goodbye to their local friends. Pray with them for provision of crops to yield sufficient food for the Yawo community
- IB PEOPLE: Praise God that Max has been able to complete his online horticulture foundational course. Pray for him and Ezzie as they plan to begin an agribusiness and look for a small plot of land to rent where some activities could begin. Ask God to be preparing a qualified local person who could join this business and that through this work significant connections can be made within the IB community.

230 Christians were abducted last February, on 22 February this year, the final 43 were released!

"Let us hold unswervingly to the hope we profess, for he who promised is faithful." - Hebrews 10:23

SYRIA | Captives released from Islamic State

On the 23rd of February 2015, 230 Christian men, women and children were abducted by the Islamic State, in a raid on Christian villages along the Khabour River. Information on their condition only came in glimpses, a video showing the execution of two men in October and occasional releases, numbering in the tens at best.

GOD AT WORK

As of 22 February this year, all 230 have been accounted for. The final 43 Christians being held have been released. The Assyrian Church has thanked everyone for supporting their community throughout this ordeal. While the Assyrian community has suffered substantially from the Islamic State, they have remained faithful and God has protected His people in this difficult time.

Sources: Open Doors, Middle East Concern, Assyrian International News Agency.

PRAY WITH US

- Pray that all those released will experience God's comfort and healing.
- Pray that God will sustain 179 Christians still in captivity from another region.
- Pray that those responsible for this suffering will know the Spirit's conviction of sin, seek the Father's forgiveness and find new life in the Son.
